Madison, Wisconsin— When Senator Tammy Baldwin decided to go all in on government-run health care last week, it was just the latest example of the senator running from her mistakes and propping up the liberal status quo ahead of hard-working Wisconsin families. She's now pushing for bureaucratic, government-run healthcare for all of Wisconsin.

“Senator Baldwin can talk all she wants, but the fact is she has failed to offer real solutions to Wisconsin families facing the burdens of Obamacare — and is now threatening to bury them under even more red tape and bureaucracy. Senator Baldwin's support of government-run health care is just further proof that she'd rather support the liberal status quo in Washington than fight for families in Wisconsin,” said Alec Zimmerman, spokesman for the Republican Party of Wisconsin.
