[Madison, WI]— Today Republicans from around Wisconsin are arriving in Wisconsin Dells to celebrate victory and build for the future. While Republicans will spend the weekend unified, highlighting their reforms for hard-working Wisconsin families, Democrats back in Madison are in complete disarray with top candidates continuing to pass on a run for governor and a contested party chair battle ahead.

“Wisconsin Republicans are proud to gather in Wisconsin Dells this weekend to celebrate our victory in 2016 and build for the future to keep Wisconsin moving forward,” said Mark Morgan, Executive Director of the Republican Party of Wisconsin. “While Republicans will spend the weekend highlighting their reforms for hard-working Wisconsin families, Democrats and Senator Tammy Baldwin are in complete disarray, offering nothing more than the same failed policies of yesterday.”
