

Adamczyk concedes in 14th AD race

Posted on Thursday, Nov 15, 2018

Republican Matt Adamczyk has officially conceded in the 14th AD race, nearly a week after Dem Robyn Vining declared victory for the seat.

Adamczyk in a statement this evening said he also won't be requesting a recount in the race following the official canvass.

"This was a very close election," the outgoing state treasurer said in a statement. "The official canvass has been completed and my opponent, Robyn Vining, received more votes than I received."

The initial count in the race showed Vining behind by 21 points. But updated results from the city of Wauwatosa last Wednesday put her ahead of Adamczyk by 132 votes.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.