Free-Market Activists Canvassed to Support Assemblyman's Re-election Bid

MADISON, WI – Americans for Prosperity-Wisconsin (AFP-WI) congratulated Assemblyman John Spiros on his victory in today's primary election. AFP-WI activists based out of their Wausau office blanketed Spiros' central Wisconsin district with literature urging voters to support Spiros because of his record of lowering taxes, cutting red tape, and reforming state government.

Americans for Prosperity-Wisconsin Deputy State Director Annette Olson made the following statement:

"AFP-Wisconsin congratulates Assemblyman John Spiros on a well-earned, well-deserved victory in today's primary. Our activists pounded the pavement in his district telling voters to vote for Spiros because of his work for pro-growth, pro-freedom reforms. We need more champions like John Spiros in government who will honorably fight for lower taxes, less regulation, and fewer barriers to opportunity. AFP-WI will continue to work hard over the next twelve weeks encouraging voters to send him back to Madison for another term."
