

AG Schimel tops Dem rival Kaul with $672k raised in first half of '18

Posted on Wednesday, Jul 11, 2018

GOP AG Brad Schimel announced Wednesday morning he raised $671,093 over the first six months of the year, finishing the latest reporting period with more than $1 million in bank.

That topped the more than $570,000 that Dem rival Josh Kaul earlier announced he had raised during the six-month period. The former federal prosecutor finished June with about $680,000 cash on hand.

Schimel's campaign said he has now raised more than $1.6 million for his re-election bid.

Finance reports for state candidates are due Monday.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.