GOP Candidates vying to win August 14 primary will tackle top issues for WI voters

MILWAUKEE, WI – Americans for Prosperity-Wisconsin (AFP-WI) today announced it will host the first Wisconsin Republican Senate Primary debate of the year on Thursday, April 26th at the Country Springs Hotel in Pewaukee. Both State Senator Leah Vukmir and Businessman Kevin Nicholson have accepted AFP-WI's invitation. They are vying for the chance to earn the Republican nomination in the August 14 primary election.

AFP-WI U.S. Senate Republican Primary Debate

Thursday, April 26, 2018

7-8:30 p.m.

Country Springs Hotel

2810 Golf Road, Pewaukee, WI 53072

The debate will cover a range of key AFP issues including taxes, spending, jobs, the economy, healthcare, and veterans' affairs.

Americans for Prosperity-Wisconsin State Director Eric Bott made the following statement about the debate:

"The people of Wisconsin will be making critical decisions this year that will have ramifications far beyond the borders of our state. We are very excited to host the first debate of this cycle and to give Wisconsinites the chance to hear directly from these two candidates about the issues that are most important to them.”
