

Annual State of Education Address

Posted on Tuesday, Sep 18, 2018

State Superintendent Tony Evers will present his annual State of Education Address at noon Thursday, Sept. 20, in the State Capitol in Madison. The program will include performances by students, presentation of the 2018 Friend of Education awards, and recognition of the 2018-19 Teachers of the Year.

Additional information is available in the attached news item or on the Department of Public Instruction newsroom website.