

AP: Screnock, Dallet advance in Supreme Court primary

Posted on Wednesday, Feb 21, 2018

The Associated Press is projecting Sauk County Judge Michael Screnock and Milwaukee County Judge Rebecca Dallet will advance to the April 3 general election for a spot on the state Supreme Court.

Middleton attorney Tim Burns was a distant third in early returns.

In a statement, Screnock said the results are “proof that voters across Wisconsin value the importance of a fair and impartial judiciary focused on upholding the rule of law and respecting our Constitution and the separation of powers, regardless of their political affiliation.”