

Bodden campaign: Sheboygan County Sheriff Cory Roeseler endorses Ty Bodden for the 59th Assembly District

Posted on Tuesday, Jun 19, 2018

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Contact:

Ty Bodden for Assembly
(920) 624-2289

Sheboygan County Sheriff, Cory Roeseler, Endorses Ty Bodden for the 59th Assembly District

St. Cloud – Former Cascade, Waldo, Adell, and the town of Lyndon Police Chief and current Sheboygan County Sheriff, Cory Roeseler, endorses Ty Bodden to succeed Rep. Jesse Kremer in the 59th Assembly District. Roeseler holds over 28 years of law enforcement experience. 26 of those years have been in the Sheboygan County Sheriff's Office. Prior to his appointment to Sheriff, Roeseler served as Captain of Patrol for twelve years.

Sheriff Roeseler issued the following statement regarding Ty, "I am proud to support Ty Bodden for the 59th District Assembly. Ty brings a youthful exuberance to the district, while addressing the important rural hometown farming issues."

Ty Bodden issued the following statement in response to Sheriff Roeseler's endorsement, "I would like to thank Sheriff Roeseler for his support and for his many years of dedicated service to law enforcement and to Sheboygan County. I look forward to working with him and with all of our local Police Departments in the future. Sheriff Roeseler has some great ideas and I am excited to have further discussion about those ideas when elected.”

Sheriff Roeseler was appointed by Governor Walker in January of this year and is up for election in November.