(Brown County, Wis.) – Brown County Executive Troy Streckenbach is issuing the following statement in regards to the passing of former Green Bay Redevelopment Authority Chairman and journalist Harry Maier:

“Harry was always generous with his time and was an early proponent of Brown County’s Research and Innovation Park,” says Streckenbach. “I always appreciated Harry’s willingness to offer guidance to my office and support efforts to improve the quality of life for all Brown County residents through his commitment to the community. Our thoughts and prayers are with his wife Marian and the entire family.”
