RACINE, WI – Randy Bryce released the following statement on the Janus vs. AFSCME Supreme Court decision.

“The Supreme Court’s decision on the Janus vs. AFSCME case is a direct attack on workers’ rights. It undermines our freedoms and rigs our economy to help corporations while hurting the working people. With Donald Trump’s Supreme Court standing on the side of corporations and special interests groups, we can expect many more decisions like this one—where working people suffer as a consequence,” said Randy Bryce.

“I know the importance of unions. I know that this type of decision is an attack on millions of Americans who depend on unions to fight for us and protect our rights. This needs to stop.”
