RACINE, WI- Randy Bryce will be participating in two primary debates throughout the district, giving voters an opportunity to hear Randy talk about real issues that affect working families. The debates will occur in Lake Geneva and Janesville and they are scheduled throughout the month of July.

“Randy welcomes the opportunity to address voters directly and share with them why his experience as a working person makes him best qualified to represent Wisconsin’s First District,” said Communications Director Julia Savel. “It is vital that voters have the opportunity to make an informed decision before sending someone to be their Representative in Washington. We are confident that Randy will show voters why his progressive vision to build a bigger table is the type of bold change we need from our leaders.”

Exact times and locations will be provided.
