

Bryce Campaign: Randy Bryce releases statement on Paul Ryan's short-term spending bill

Posted on Wednesday, Jan 17, 2018

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

For Immediate Release: January 17, 2018

Contact: Lauren Hitt, 443-370-3205, lauren@randybryceforcongress.com

Randy Bryce Releases Statement on Paul Ryan's Short-Term Spending Bill

RACINE, WI – Speaker Ryan's Democratic challenger, Randy Bryce, released the following statement on the short-term spending bill that the Speaker presented to House Republicans on Tuesday evening.

"Paul Ryan is playing games with our country's most vulnerable. This bill not only leaves Dreamers in limbo, it also uses the Children's Health Insurance Program as a bargaining chip. If there was any doubt after tax 'reform' or the Obamacare repeal that Speaker Ryan's values have been skewed by 20 years of talking to lobbyists and billionaire donors in D.C., it was erased last night."

About Randy Bryce

Randy Bryce is a U.S. Army veteran, cancer survivor, and union ironworker. He was raised in southeastern Wisconsin, and went to public schools. Randy's father was a police officer, and his mother worked in a doctor's office. After graduation, Randy enlisted in the U.S. Army, and was posted to Honduras, where he earned the Army Achievement Medal. After returning stateside, Randy was diagnosed with cancer, which he survived, but only after struggling through the bankruptcy that came with the medical bills. Once in remission, Randy found his way to an apprenticeship as an ironworker, a trade he's now been practicing and fighting to protect from anti-labor laws for nearly 20 years. Randy currently resides in Caledonia, WI with his son, Ben, who attends public schools like his dad. Randy joined the race for Wisconsin's 1st Congressional District in Summer 2017.