RACINE, WI – Randy Bryce for Congress released the campaign's latest television ad, Helmets, in which Bryce calls out the NRA profit machine and makes clear his vision for common sense gun reform.

“As a gun owner and veteran, Randy Bryce has a unique opportunity to share his vision for gun reform,” said Campaign Manager David Keith. “Before he wore a hard hat, Randy wore an Army helmet and qualified as an expert shot. He understands and respects the 2nd Amendment. He also believes the NRA distorts it, putting profit ahead of basic safety. People are waking up to this reality and our campaign is ready to lead on the issue of common sense reform.”
