RACINE, WI – Randy Bryce released the following statement regarding the First Congressional District Primary Election Night results.

“This win is a victory for all working families in southeast Wisconsin. Together, we made our voices heard — but this fight is far from over. The GOP will do everything in their power to uphold the status quo and elect a Paul Ryan clone who will be another rubber stamp in Washington. They have nominated Lyin’ Bryan Steil — an out-of-touch Washington insider who took good paying jobs from our district and shipped them overseas. Lyin’ Bryan pretends to care about working people, but his support of tax cuts for the wealthy — paid for by cuts to Medicare, Medicaid, and Social Security — proves he has no idea what people in this district need. I do understand—I know what it’s like to fall on hard times. Bottom line— we need to build a bigger table for everyone. And I will work every day for the next three months to make sure the people in this district get the respect and representation they deserve.”
