Dem Randy Bryce's campaign says he raised $1.2 million in the last three months of 2017 as he seeks to take on House Speaker Paul Ryan, R-Janesville.

That pushes his overall fundraising haul to around $2.7 million since he got into the race. Bryce reported just less than $1.5 million raised through the end of October and had $1 million in the bank.

His campaign did not say how much cash on hand he had to end 2017.
