Cedarburg- Cedarburg resident and Mid Moraine Municipal Court Judge Steve Cain announces his candidacy for Ozaukee County Circuit Court. Judge Cain has already secured the endorsements of Wisconsin Supreme Court Justices Daniel Kelly and Rebecca Bradley as well as incumbent Ozaukee County Judge Joe Voiland. He looks forward to earning support from the legal community, law enforcement, and the citizens of the county.

Judge Cain offered the following statement:

“I am honored to announce my candidacy for Ozaukee County Circuit Court. It is my sincere hope that the citizens of Ozaukee County will recognize my service as a municipal judge, lawyer and active community member. I am committed to running a race focused on the proper role of a judge - to apply the law as written, not as I wish it to be. I am grateful for the early support of Wisconsin Supreme Court Justices Daniel Kelly and Rebecca Bradley. I want to thank Judge Voiland for his service to our country, his service to the County the last six years, and his support of my candidacy.”

Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Daniel Kelly issued the following statement:

“I am pleased that Judge Steve Cain has chosen to pursue a position on the Ozaukee County Circuit Court. Through his service as a municipal court judge, he has already demonstrated that he is a very capable jurist who will faithfully apply the law as written. Along with Judge Voiland, I look forward to welcoming him to the bench.”

About Steve. Judge Cain has served as a municipal court judge for nearly 10 years and has practiced law in Ozaukee County for nearly 20 years. He is an active community member having served as President of the Cedarburg-Grafton Rotary Club, Wisconsin Municipal Judges Association and Ozaukee County Bar Association. He resides in Cedarburg with his wife Heather and two sons.
