DALLET FOR JUSTICE LAUNCHES NEW TV AD

“Never” contrasts experience and values between candidates for Supreme Court
MILWAUKEE — Today, the Dallet for Justice campaign unveils a new television advertisement that will run across Wisconsin through April 3, 2018. The ad, titled “Never,” outlines how Judge Rebecca Dallet’s two decades of experience vastly outshines her opponent’s short time as a judge, appointed by Scott Walker, after his years as a partisan political lawyer.

Campaign manager Jessica Lovejoy commented, “Judge Rebecca Dallet is the only candidate for Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice with the experience for the job. She has served for a decade as a Milwaukee County judge and 11 years as a prosecutor, and is a champion for victims of human trafficking, child abuse, sexual assault, and domestic violence. Wisconsin voters have a better choice than Screnock, who let a guilty child sexual assailant walk without prison time and has never once prosecuted a criminal case.”

Elected in 2008 and re-elected in 2014, Judge Rebecca Dallet currently serves on the Milwaukee County Circuit Court. She has spent the past 23 years working in Wisconsin courtrooms – first as a prosecutor and now as judge presiding over more than 10,000 cases and more than 230 jury trials in a wide range of areas from domestic violence and misdemeanor court, to homicide and drug court, and civil and small claims court. Judge Dallet is running to protect our Wisconsin values during a time when our most basic rights are under attack. She lives in Whitefish Bay with her husband, Brad, and their three teenage daughters.
