MILWAUKEE — Today, U.S Senator Cory Booker announced his support for Wisconsin Supreme Court candidate Rebecca Dallet. Senator Cory Booker (D-New Jersey) said, “Our system of government is dependent on a strong, independent, and impartial judicial branch that considers each case without a partisan lens. I am immensely impressed with Judge Rebecca Dallet’s values and experience, and I am confident given her two decades of experience in Wisconsin courtrooms, both as a prosecutor and judge, that Judge Dallet will help restore just and independent rulings to Wisconsin’s Supreme Court.” “I’m so honored that Senator Cory Booker has joined our fight to bring independence and fairness back to Wisconsin’s Supreme Court,” said Judge Rebecca Dallet. “Senator Booker has a long history of taking on big-monied special interests for the people of New Jersey and I’m grateful that he sees that same fight in me. I am running to take on the undue influence of special interests on Wisconsin’s highest court and return it to the people of Wisconsin.”
