The same morning that Governor Scott Walker went on Fox and Friends to “sound the alarm” about his reelection odds, the RGA pushed the panic button and announced it would be dumping \$5 million into propping up his floundering campaign.

Walker served as Chair of the RGA through 2017 and is currently on their executive committee.

“Scott Walker is vulnerable: Wisconsin families know it, the RGA knows it, and Walker himself knows it,” said DGA Press Secretary Melissa Miller. “All the money in the world won’t cover up Walker’s record because voters know he’s spent his time as governor putting his own national political aspirations ahead of Wisconsin’s small businesses and hardworking families.”
