Marshfield WI- Brian Ewert is excited to announce that he is running for US Congress in the WI-7 Congressional District. Brian has served his community for 25 years as doctor in Marshfield. While serving as a doctor, Brian saw not only the struggles his patients endured but also the generosity of a community that took care of each other. It is his belief that the strength of this community should be reflected in Washington. Representing the people of Wisconsin in Congress would be a continuation of a proud lifetime of service.

Brian will be available for interviews at his campaign headquarters in Marshfield after 2:30 on Wednesday February 28. The campaign headquarters is located at 401 S Central Ave. For additional information or to setup an interview time please call David Hile at 612-559-0298 or email him at david@ewertforcongress.com.
