MADISON - First Lady Tonette Walker today invited the public to tour the Wisconsin Executive Residence during the holiday season. Visitors are invited to come to the residence to see Holiday decorations created by florists and decorators from across the state.

“Every year the Wisconsin Executive Residence is decorated by talented florists and decorators from across the state, and this year they did an incredible job,” said Mrs. Walker. “I hope families will visit the residence this year to enjoy our beautiful decorations.”

Tours will be held at the Wisconsin Executive Residence (99 Cambridge Road, Madison, WI 53704): December 12th, 13th, 19th, and 20th from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Visitors do not need to make a reservation, but tours are first come first serve. Groups larger than 20 should call (608) 246-5501 to make arrangements.
