Kenosha, WI - In an effort to inform the first Congressional District voters ahead of the August 14th primary election, Forward Kenosha and the Kenosha County Democratic Party are hosting the Congressional District 1 Democratic Primary Forum between Cathy Myers and Randy Bryce. Myers and Bryce are set to face-off in the August 14th primary for the chance to run for the seat currently held by Paul Ryan.

WHO: Forward Kenosha and the Kenosha County Democratic Party host candidates Cathy Myers and Randy Bryce; moderated by WGTD's Len Iaquina

WHAT: Congressional District 1 Democratic Candidate Forum

WHEN: Wednesday, July 11th - 6:30 to 8:00 pm

WHERE: UAW Local 72 Hall, 3615 Washington Rd., Kenosha WI 53144

"With few opportunities for CD1 constituents to see these candidates side-by-side prior to casting our votes in the primary, we are happy to provide this opportunity to hear Randy Bryce and Cathy Myers talk about the issues that are important to us. It is critical that as voters we understand the strengths of both candidates so we can choose the individual who will best represent our needs in Washington," said Jodi Muerhoff, Acting President of Forward Kenosha.

"The Kenosha County Democratic Party is pleased to cosponsor this forum that will give the constituents of the 1st Congressional District an equal opportunity to hear both candidates before the August 14th Primary Election. It is important that voters hear each candidate's stance on the issues in this crucial election," said Sally Simpson, Treasurer of the Kenosha County Democratic Party.
