MADISON- Governor Scott Walker asked art teachers, parents, and children from across Wisconsin to help decorate the 2018 State Capitol Christmas Tree by making ornaments for this year’s tree. The theme for the 2018 Capitol Christmas Tree will be “America’s Dairyland.”

“Wisconsin’s dairy industry is more than a strong part of our state’s economy, it’s part of our history,” said Governor Walker. “This year in tribute to our dairy farmers and our state’s world-renowned dairy industry, I am inviting children from across Wisconsin to send in ‘America’s Dairyland’ themed ornaments to decorate the Capitol Christmas Tree.”

Anyone interested in sending “America’s Dairyland” themed ornaments to decorate the tree should make their submission by Friday, November 23, 2018.

Please send “America’s Dairyland” themed ornaments to:
