MADISON – Governor Scott Walker ordered flags to half-staff today through Saturday, July 14, 2018 in honor of Captain Cory Barr of the Sun Prairie Volunteer Fire Department. Governor Walker also released the following statement recognizing Captain Barr.

Captain Cory Barr dedicated his life to protecting his community. Cory's memory and legacy of selflessness and service will live on through his wife, daughters, and the members of his crew. Tonette and I have Cory's family, his crew, and all those injured and affected by this tragedy in our thoughts and prayers.

Governor Walker's executive order is here.
