Gov. Walker: Seeks applicants for Racine County judicial vacancy

MADISON - Governor Scott Walker announced today he is seeking applicants for appointment to the Racine County Circuit Court. The new appointee will replace outgoing Racine County Circuit Court Judge Charles Constantine, whose resignation is effective September 5, 2018. The new appointee, should he or she choose to run, would be up for election in April 2019.

To apply, please submit the following:

Cover Letter

Resume

Two Writing Samples

Judicial Application: found on Governor Walker's website: www.walker.wi.gov. (Select "Menu" at the top right of the page, "Serve WI," "Service Applications," "Judicial Application.")

All application materials must be received no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, July 13, 2018. Following submission, you will receive an email confirming that we have received your application, and explaining the next steps.

Potential applicants with questions about the process should email their questions to govjudicialappointments@wisconsin.gov. If you need to speak with someone immediately, you may contact Kate Wiedel at 608-266-1212.
