(Fond du Lac, WI) – Congressman Glenn Grothman (R-Glenbeulah) has earned the endorsement of six sitting Sheriffs and two sheriffs-elect in 6th Congressional District, including Sheriff Dennis Richards of Columbia County, Sheriff Dale Schmidt of Dodge County, Sheriff Mark Podoll of Green Lake County, Sheriff James Johnson of Ozaukee County, Sheriff Cory Roeseler of Sheboygan County, Sheriff John Matz of Winnebago County, Sheriff-elect Dan Hartwig of Manitowoc County and Sheriff-elect Joe Konrath of Marquette County.

“A sheriff is someone who must know both the law and the community backwards and forwards. Their unique relationship with each is what gives them such a strong sense of the needs of their friends and neighbors throughout the county. That is why I am honored to receive the endorsement of these great law enforcement agents, who have sacrificed so much to keep our community safe.” said Grothman.

“I have had the pleasure of working with Congressman Grothman for the past several years. I am proud to support him in the upcoming election, just as he has supported the men and women of law enforcement throughout his time in office.” said Sheboygan County Sheriff, Cory Roeseler.
