(Appleton, WI) - Hoffman Planning, Design & Construction, Inc. has been awarded the Large Employer Corporate Citizen Leadership Award from the Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce. The Corporate Citizen Leadership Award, one of the Chamber's 2018 Business Awards, recognizes organizations with a philosophy of giving and community involvement that have made significant differences in the health and well-being of the Fox Cities. The award encourages and supports corporate social responsibility and community leadership.

"We are honored to receive this prestigious award from the Fox Cities Chamber," said Sam Statz, Hoffman president. "Beyond delivering quality facilities to our clients, Hoffman prides itself on giving back to our communities, supporting the Fox Cities, and leading by example. This award truly is a testament to our commitment to all three."

In addition to its corporate giving, employee donation programs, and community volunteering efforts, Hoffman is actively involved with numerous Fox Valley organizations that promote health and well-being and social responsibility. These organizations include Rebuilding Together Fox Valley, YMCA of the Fox Cities, Homeless Connections, and the U.S. Venture Open for Basic Needs, among others.

Hoffman will be recognized at the 2018 Business Awards Luncheon on Tuesday, May 15th, at the Radisson Paper Valley Hotel.
