Brookfield, Wis. - January 22, 2018 - The Independent Business Association of Wisconsin

(IBAW) presents a legislative roundtable discussion on Thursday, January 25, 2018, 3:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. Event will be held at Sikich, 13400 Bishops Lane, 3 rd floor training room, Brookfield, Wis.

Steve Kohlmann, Executive Director of IBAW, said, "The IBAW legislative committee presents an open forum for you, the Wisconsin business owner, to meet and connect with our representatives in Madison. It's an opportunity to address your business concerns directly to your elected representatives." To register, go to www.IBAW.com

Participants in the roundtable discussion are Sen. Lena Taylor, Sen. Chris Kapenga, Rep. Dale Kooyenga and Rep. Rob Hutton. This is also an opportunity for the representatives to communicate to us what is on deck for the 2018 legislative session and to get feedback.

The session is free for IBAW members, and $25 for Nonmembers.

The mission of the IBAW is to advance business prosperity through insightful programming, executive networking, and member-driven public policy and advocacy. IBAW membership encompasses manufacturing, service, distribution, healthcare, technology, financial, consulting and others. A statewide, non-profit association, IBAW members and sponsors employ thousands of Wisconsin workers.

Since 1973, the Independent Business Association of Wisconsin (IBAW) was formed for small business owners to engage in conversation relating to legislation impacting the bottom-line costs of businesses throughout Wisconsin. IBAW is a venue for high level CEOs, CFOs, COOs, other upper management and entrepreneurs to network, exchange business ideas, and become educated and involved on issues which impact their business. IBAW is time well spent!
