Transition Budget for Newly-Elected Governor

Section 13.09(5), of the statutes, requires that the Joint Committee on Finance meet within one week following the election of the Governor to approve a budget for the transition of the newly-elected Governor. The section reads as follows:

“Within one week after the general election in November of those years in which a gubernatorial election is held, if the incumbent governor is not reelected, the committee shall convene and approve a budget for the newly elected governor to enable the incoming governor to review and analyze the budget, to hire staff and obtain space, and to do such tasks as the committee approves.”
