Grafton - The Kohl for Congress campaign announced raising $354,000 for the first quarter of 2018. This marks the campaign's best fundraising quarter to date and brings the total amount raised to over $1.2 million. At the end of Q1, the campaign also announced increasing their cash on hand to $841,000. The fundraising totals do not include any contributions or loans from the candidate.

"People are looking for representation that is solutions-oriented and brings people together. Our fundraising numbers reflect that strong desire." said non-profit leader and business executive Dan Kohl. "Thank you to all of our supporters for helping us build continued momentum toward a victory this November."
