

Kohl says he raised $354k in Q1 for 6th CD bid

Posted on Monday, Apr 16, 2018

Dem Dan Kohl says he's pulled in $354,000 over the first three months of the year, again outraising U.S. Rep. Glenn Grothman.

Grothman, meanwhile, raised $276,053 over the period that covers January through March, according to a check of his most recent FEC report.

The figure means Kohl's raised a total of $1.2 million since he got into the race in early June last year, according to his campaign. Kohl also has $841,000 in cash on hand and spent around $126,000 over the first quarter of the year.

Grothman spent $78,819 over the period, ending it with $705,415, in the bank.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Kohl has been consistently outraising Grothman, R-Glenbeulah. Over the last three months of 2017, Kohl pulled in $329,212, compared with Grothman's $239,287. And in the third quarter, Kohl raised $250,801 over Grothman's $131,686.

Scott Olmer, a Plymouth business owner who was also running for the seat, said he's planning to suspend his campaign and will close his accounts later this week.