WAUKESHA—February 1, 2018—Waukesha County Sheriff Eric Severson will keynote a meet-n-greet event at Revere's Well Street Tavern in Delafield, Thursday, February 1. The event runs from 5-7 p.m.

"The support for my campaign from Sheriff Severson, District Attorney Sue Opper, the Waukesha County Deputy Sheriff Association and a host of others who value keeping Waukesha County safe speaks to our working relationship over 16 years," Lau says.

"During this time," Lau adds, "I'm the only candidate in the race for Branch 12 Circuit Court Judge who has presided over cases in Waukesha County courts. I'm grateful for law enforcement's faith in my service to keeping Waukesha County safe."

Sheriff Severson will speak at 5:30 p.m. followed by candidate for Branch 12 Waukesha County Circuit Court Judge, Laura Lau. Topics to be discussed include law enforcement's and the judiciary's role in combating crime in Waukesha County.

The election for Waukesha County Circuit Court Judge, Branch 12, is April 3.
