Green Bay — Beau Liegeois, candidate for Congress (WI-08), earlier today announced endorsements from the hard-working men and women of the following Labor Unions; SMART, NEA, United Steelworkers (USW), and local Firefighters Unions across Northeast Wisconsin.

Beau Liegeois said, “As a former Union President, I am so proud to stand with the hard-working men and women of the labor movement, not just in Northeast Wisconsin, but across the country. On Monday, we will celebrate labor, and honor the hard-working men and women who have built the United States.

We need a new voice in Washington, a voice that will stand up to the corporate interests that have turned Washington upside down and bring our Northeast Wisconsin values to the halls of Congress.”
