Franklin, WI—The Patti Logsdon for Milwaukee County Board Campaign today released a list of endorsements it has received in support of Patti Logsdon in her pursuit of Milwaukee County's 9th District seat, representing Oak Creek, Hales Corners, and Franklin.

"I am very proud that so many hardworking, respected people have publicly endorsed my candidacy," Logsdon said. Logsdon's endorsements through February 21, 2018, include:

Wisconsin Right to Life

Tommy Thompson, Wisconsin's 42nd Governor

Leah Vukmir, State Senator and Candidate for U.S. Senate

Kevin Nicholson, Marine and Candidate for U.S. Senate

Janel Brandtjen, State Representative

Dan Sebring, Milwaukee County Supervisor

Deanna Alexander, Milwaukee County Supervisor

Bob Spindell, 4th Congressional District Chair, Republican Party of Wisconsin

Robin Moore, President, Wisconsin Federation of Republican Women

Elaine Lukas, Owner, Park Hills West

Jim & Sandi Asti

John & Judy Bintliff

Bruce Bolle

Nick & Melissa Coello

Annette Guye-Kordus
Ken & Sandy Hammel
Bob & Naomi Knoll
Eddie & Paulette Litkowski
Steve & Marilyn McAdams
Jake Margis
Fred & Judie Mueller
Sandra Plautz
Adam & Judy Reuter
Julie Vale

17 additional elected officials, public servants, and other well-known members of the community remain unnamed, at their request, because they allege the incumbent candidate, Supervisor and Alderman Steve Taylor, has directly threatened their businesses and reputations. These unnamed supporters have shared in confidence that they also cannot put up signs or donate to the campaign because it would draw the attention of Supervisor Taylor, whom they fear. Instead, they will be privately encouraging others to vote for Patti Logsdon.
