On Saturday, December 1, 2018, Marquette University Law School and the Milwaukee Bar Association will host the 39th Annual Conference on Recent Developments in Criminal Law. Join us at the Law School's beautiful Eckstein Hall facility for this annual event, which over the course of nearly four decades has provided continuing legal education to hundreds and hundreds of lawyers.

Once again, a faculty of the highest quality will address timely topics of interest to criminal law practitioners. Speakers include Professor Daniel Blinka, Attorneys Robert Donohoo, Craig Johnson, Jason Luczak, Craig Mastantuono, Dennis Melowski, Timothy Pierce (the Ethics Counsel for the State Bar of Wisconsin) and Digital Forensics Expert Nicholas Schiavo. In this year's program you will be updated on the latest in...

Criminal Law & Procedure Appellate Decisions

Technological Evidence: Video Forensics

Fourth Amendment Search and Seizure Developments

Recently Enacted Criminal Legislation

OWI and Motor Vehicle Laws

With TWO ethics hours:

Ethics, Evidence and Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

Ethical Considerations: Communicating with Represented Persons and Other Hot Topics

CONFERENCE DETAILS

Schedule. The conference will be held on Saturday, December 1, 2018, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:50 p.m. Coffee and pastries will be available when the doors open at 8:00 a.m. Beverages will also be served during session breaks. A complimentary lunch (pizza and sandwiches) will be offered to all attendees.

Location. Marquette Law School, Eckstein Hall, 1215 West Michigan Street \(#7 on campus map\). Complimentary for off-campus visitors is available in the Eckstein Hall Underground Parking Structure (7a on campus map) - 11th Street level. 11th Street level, between Wisconsin Avenue and Clybourn. Enter the lot, pull a ticket, and find an open parking space. Once parked, follow signs to the elevator. Take the elevator to main floor which opens to the foyer and go to the Welcome Desk to get your "chaser" ticket so that you will not have to pay for parking when exiting. Our parking system requires two tickets to exit. The ticket you pulled to enter and the "chaser" ticket the Welcome Desk will give you. You will be given instructions.

Registration. The registration fee for the all-day conference is $165.00 for members of the Milwaukee Bar Association and $190.00 for all others. Advance registration (either online or by mail) will guarantee a set of the specially prepared instructional materials on the date of the conference. Registrations will also be accepted at the door.
