With the weather finally warming up and more of us enjoying what Milwaukee has to offer, I implore drivers to slow down, be alert and be responsible. Just today, out in my district, I saw three serious accidents. Let us not forget that Milwaukee streets truly belong to everyone, including those on a bike or crossing on foot. And with the Milwaukee Police Department, Milwaukee County Sheriff's Department and Wisconsin State Patrol teaming up for increased traffic enforcement, it is a perfect time to slow down, be mindful and stop the nonsense of reckless driving.
