Milwaukee, WI - This morning at about 4:50 a.m. an inmate assigned to work duty ran from the dock area where the inmate and a correctional officer were taking out trash.

The inmate, Douglas Slock II, age 45, of Greendale, was in custody since September 30 on charges of OWI-5th offense, and prior Burglary and Bail Jumping charges. He remains at large. Slock is 5' 8", 180 pounds, with short gray hair. He was wearing dark blue jail pants and gray T-shirt.

The U.S. Marshals Task Force and MCSO detectives are searching for the inmate. The MacArthur Square parking structure was closed during the initial search, reopening just after 7:00 a.m.

Sheriff Richard Schmidt has suspended the correctional officer pending an internal investigation.
