

Mitchell adds two staffers to gov bid, including campaign manager

Posted on Tuesday, Jan 30, 2018

Dem Mahlon Mitchell has added two staffers to his gov bid, including campaign manager Craig Brown.

Brown, who most recently worked in New Hampshire, started Jan. 1, and will oversee day-to-day operations, said campaign spokeswoman Lis Smith.

Robert Dempsey, who was Bernie Sanders' state director during the 2016 Dem presidential primary, remains with the campaign in a consulting role, Smith said.

Along with Brown, the campaign has added Taylor Bollhagen as outreach director.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

The 2015 UW-Madison grad previously worked as deputy logistics director on Russ Feingold's 2016 Senate campaign.

See more in Tuesday's PM Update.