Delafield, WI – Kevin Nicholson, a Marine, outsider, and the conservative candidate for United States Senate in Wisconsin calls on Senator Tammy Baldwin to do her job by supporting and helping advance the judicial nomination of native Wisconsinite, Mike Brennan to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

“With the selection of Mike Brennan last summer, President Trump put forth yet another highly qualified conservative judicial nominee. Mike is a well-respected jurist who has also long been a leader in the Milwaukee legal community. It is now incumbent upon Senator Baldwin and the Democrats to stop obstructing this critical nomination, and instead fully support the expeditious confirmation of Mike Brennan to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

In sharp contrast to Senator Baldwin, as the next U.S. Senator from Wisconsin, I will work with President Trump and the Administration, Senator Johnson, and Republican leadership to help confirm strong judicial nominees, like Mike Brennan, who will uphold the Constitution and rein in the overreaching regulatory state.”
