MADISON, Wis. — One Wisconsin Now Executive Director Scot Ross will be providing live, post- gubernatorial debate analysis tonight at 10pm as part of the award winning “Unspun” political commentary team on Madison’s NBC 15 TV. In addition to heading the state’s preeminent progressive research and communications shop, Ross has played critical roles in numerous statewide and state legislative campaigns and served as a top aide at the state Department of Justice.

“We’ve been tracking Scott Walker for the better part of his quarter century in what he refers to as the government hammock,” said Ross. “What we know is that Scott Walker will do or say anything to try to win an election, and I’m happy to be able to help separate fact from his fictions as part of the Unspun team tonight.”

Ross will be appearing live as part of the 10pm news coverage on NBC 15 in Madison. Joining Ross are Leigh Mills, host of the award winning Unspun political commentary program, lobbyist and longtime Republican political insider Bill McCoshen and Professor Richard Haven.
