Brookfield, WI – Tom Palzewicz, candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in Wisconsin's 5th district, today announced the endorsement of the four most recent former Chairs of the Democratic Party of Milwaukee County: Robert Hansen, Marlene Ott, Sachin Chheda, and Martha Love.

"Tom is exactly the kind of leader we need in the 5th district," said Hansen, who also serves as President of the Greenfield School Board. "Tom is a small-business owner who understands that when small businesses thrive, so does our economy."

"Tom's a Navy veteran who served on a nuclear submarine and he knows that climate change is a dire threat not only to our country, but the entire planet," said Ott, a retired South Milwaukee schoolteacher.

"Tom will bring common-sense bipartisan solutions to Washington and help end the era of hyper-partisanship that has paralyzed the federal government," said Love. "We are proud to endorse Tom in his bid for Congress and look forward to working with him on ways to improve Milwaukee County and beyond."

"I'm honored to have the endorsement of such incredible community leaders," said Palzewicz. "I believe that with their support, and that of other leaders in the community, we will have what it takes to finally retire 40-year incumbent Jim Sensenbrenner and bring responsible leadership back to the 5th.”
