Legislators say Tom will be a strong advocate for Southeastern Wisconsin and a supporter of progressive values

Brookfield, WI – Tom Palzewicz, candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in Wisconsin's 5th district, today announced the endorsements of Sen. Chris Larson and Rep. Jonathan Brostoff.

"Tom has the experience and dedication to servant leadership that our neighbors in the 5th Congressional District need in their representative," said Sen. Larson. "I look forward to the fresh, new ideas Tom will bring to Congress after he wins in November."

"Tom Palzewicz will be a strong advocate for hard-working people in Southeastern Wisconsin," said Rep. Brostoff. "I know that Tom will be a staunch supporter of progressive values and work to ensure everyone has what they need to succeed." "I'm honored to have the endorsement of these two strong leaders," said Palzewicz. "Together, we can solve the most pressing challenges facing our country and help more Americans achieve the American Dream."

Sen. Larson and Rep. Brostoff join a growing list of leaders and organizations to endorse Palzewicz including former Maryland Governor Martin O'Malley, Milwaukee Mayor Tom Barrett, Milwaukee County District Attorney John Chisholm, Milwaukee County Executive Chris Abele, state legislators including Rep. Sinicki, Rep. Riemer, Sen. Carpenter, Rep. Goyke, Rep. Zamarripa, and Rep. Spreitzer, the Wisconsin AFL-CIO, the Bricklayers and Teamsters unions, and many more.
