MILWAUKEE – Rep. David Bowen (D-Milwaukee) announced today he has been named to the Board of Directors of People for the American Way (PFAW). The PFAW Foundation is an issues-focused nonprofit committed to building an America that respects diversity, respects creativity, and combats hatred and bigotry. Rep. Bowen issued the following statement:

“I am proud to join the PFAW Foundation Board of Directors in their efforts to protect the constitutional principles of equality under the law, freedom of speech and religion, the fundamental right to vote, and the critical focus on racial justice.

“This is a critical time for our country, and we’re thrilled to welcome Representative Bowen to our board of directors,” said PFAW Foundation President Michael Keegan. “David has been a real leader on progressive issues in Wisconsin and nationally, as well as a valuable member of PFAW Foundation’s Young Elected Officials Network. We’re excited for him to take on this new role with our organization.”
