GILMAN - Today, Representative James Edming (R-Glen Flora) received the 2017-2018 Wisconsin Manufacturers and Commerce (WMC) Working for Wisconsin Award at Gilman Cheese Corporation in Gilman.

“Rep. Edming is a solid leader who has delivered tremendous results for taxpayers and the business community,” said WMC President & CEO Kurt R. Bauer. “Rep. Edming has a passion for policies that support job creation and economic growth, which is imperative to our state’s future.”

This award recognizes legislators who supported specific pro-growth policies and earned at least a 70% rating on WMC’s legislative scorecard. WMC reports that Rep. Edming earned 93.8% score on this session’s scorecard.

“I am honored to receive this prestigious award in recognition of my support for legislation and initiatives that promote a healthy economic and business climate in our state,” said Rep. Edming. “Wisconsin’s economy is strong, and I am proud to support policies that help make our state a great place to work, live and raise a family.”
