DE PERE –1st State Senate District candidate and current 2nd State Assembly District Representative André Jacque (R – De Pere) announced additional endorsements for his campaign today from Republican Kewaunee County Sheriff Matt Joski and Kewaunee County Board Law Enforcement and Emergency Management Committee Chair Linda Sinkula (also the Carlton Town Clerk). Rep. Jacque previously announced the endorsement of longtime former 1st Assembly District Rep. Garey Bies and former 1st District Senator Alan Lasee.

“I’m proud to support André Jacque for State Senate. André has been an effective advocate for victim’s rights and public safety and a champion of conservative values throughout his time in office,” stated Sheriff Joski.

Rep. Jacque has now received prominent endorsements from all five Republican county sheriffs from across the 1st Senate District, including Brown County Sheriff John Gossage, Calumet County Sheriff Mark Ott, Door County Sheriff Steve Delarwelle, and Outagamie County Sheriff Brad Gehring.

Jacque also announced endorsements from several Kewaunee County town officials, including Town of Carlton Chairman Dave Hardtke, Town of Carlton Supervisor Steve Tadisch, Town of Casco Chairman (and Kewaunee County Supervisor) Joseph Lukes, Town of Casco Supervisor Perry Pavlat, Town of Luxemburg Chairman David Barrett, Town of Luxemburg Supervisor Leonard Wachal, Town of Luxemburg Clerk Marilyn Barrett, Town of Luxemburg Treasurer Gerald Zellner, Town of Red River Chairman Mike Sampo, and Town of Red River Supervisor Chuck Kinnard.

“I am honored to have earned the enthusiastic support of these outstanding local leaders,” said Jacque.

Additional endorsements will be released in the coming weeks.
