Madison, WI –Rep. Amy Loudenbeck (R-Clinton) released the following statement after Governor Scott Walker gave his 2018 State of the State address this afternoon:

“Wisconsin has a lot to be proud of. The state of our state is historically strong and the Governor’s speech was a great reminder of all of the accomplishments we have made over the past eight years. Unemployment is historically low, education funding is historically high. We’re continuing to lower taxes and address priorities for Wisconsin citizens. I am looking forward to getting to work on the policy initiatives contained in the Governor’s Ambitious Agenda for 2018.”
