MADISON – State Representative Jessie Rodriguez, R-Oak Creek, was re-appointed chair of the Assembly Committee on Family Law for the 2019-2021 legislative session. Rodriguez was first appointed chair of the committee in 2017.

“I want to thank Speaker Vos for trusting me to lead this important committee for the upcoming legislative session,” said Rodriguez. “I’m proud of the work our committee started and I look forward to working with the members of this committee again in a bipartisan fashion.”

The Assembly Committee on Family Law consists of nine bipartisan members including the chair. Last session the committee considered several bills and rules aimed at improving the condition for those impacted by family law in Wisconsin.

“I’m eager to get back to work with my colleagues and continue working towards improving the environment surrounding family law in Wisconsin.”
