Washington, D.C.—Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (WI-05) issued the following statement after House Speaker Paul Ryan announced that he will retire at the end of the 115th Congress:

“Paul Ryan will leave an indelible mark upon this institution. I am honored to have served with him and blessed to call him my friend. I’ve had the privilege of knowing Paul and his family throughout his career — from first-time candidate and junior lawmaker, to vice presidential candidate and committee chairman, to his current role as Speaker of the House. I wish him the best and know that he looks forward to spending more time with his wife and kids.”
