Star Prairie, Wis... Today, former State Representative Erik Severson (R-Star Prairie) has endorsed Gae Magnafici (R-Dresser) to succeed Rep. Adam Jarchow in the State Assembly:

“I am happy to announce my endorsement of Gae Magnafici for the State Assembly. As a physician, I know that Gae’s years of experience in the medical field will be a huge asset to the legislature as it continues to tackle healthcare issues. Being a nurse for 35 years, Gae has spent her career making life saving decisions every single day. The ability to make a tough decision and stand by it is exactly what is needed to make a difference in the State Assembly.

Further, I am thrilled to support a candidate who is staunchly pro-life. Gae will continue to fight to protect the most vulnerable in our society – the unborn. Please join me in supporting Gae Magnafici – a Conservative voice for Northwestern Wisconsin.”
